THE PRIMARY'S COST.

Something Near $16,000-Assesment Against the Various Offices.

At a meeting of the Democratic State Central Committee the assessments for entering the race for the various nominations under the primary, were decided upon as follows:

Governor, $800; Attorney General, $1,600; Auditor, $2,200; Treasurer, $1,800; Secretary of State, $1,800; Superintendent of Public Instruction, $1,800; Clerk Court of Ap peals, $1,800; Commissioner of Agriculture, $1,700. This foots up $16,000, the estimated cost of the ry will succeed to the seat now

These assessments are not made against the candidates, individually, but against the office, hence the more candidates the less the expense will be for each one, as lead and zinc mines in which he is the assessment against each office interested. Swager Sherley will will be divided between the candidates for that office.

THE COMMONER IN 1903.

The Commoner. Mr. Bryan's paper, will be especially interesting and instructive during the present session of congress. The action of this congress will probably determine the issues upon which the next presidential campaign will be fought. The Commoner proposes to carry on a campaign of education and organization to the end that democratic principles may triumph.

In addition to the editorial department, which receives Mr. Bryan's personal attention, The Commoner contains a Current Topic department, wherein a or whether the typo who put it in non-partisan discussion of topics of timely interest and other valuable information will be found. The Home Department is conducted by an experienced woman who is widely known as a writer of household topics and who is an authority on the art of cooking in all that times and re-read. WHAT A LITTLE ERROR DID

There's a row on in a neighborhood town. The young folks gave an entertainment for the benefit of some local church. Of course there was lots of love making in it and kissing, etc., and one of the catch phrases was, "He squeezed her tight." The local editor concluded to use this term in his description of the work of the leading lady and gentleman, but whether he was careless in his writing type was drunk, does not appear. At any rate one little letter had been added and it read: "He squeezed her tights." Every copy of the paper was read a dozen tor was ordered on a vacation and mel Register.
